

FINANCING YOUR SMALL BUSINESS GROWTH

Lieutenant Governor Matthew Denn, the Delaware District Office of the U. S. Small Business Administration, and the United Way of Delaware are proud to host a workshop to help empower you during these difficult economic times.

Tuesday, November 24, 2009

6:30 - 7:30pm

Brandywine Hundred Library

1300 Foulk Rd

Wilmington, DE 19803

Target Audience: Faith Community

There are still available sources of financing for small businesses, despite some misinformation about business funding sources. This session will introduce attendees to legitimate funding sources and strategies available to assist a small business to start or expand operations. Panel members will also share tips and strategies on preparing and presenting an effective funding package to a potential funding source. It will offer practical information to build skills to achieve success in these financially trying times.

There is no fee for participation.

*This workshop is designed for the faith community
but all are welcome to attend.*

Presented by:

Matthew Denn
Delaware's Lieutenant Governor

For information and to register, contact Raina Allen (302) 577-8494 / raina.allen@state.de.us

Cosponsorship Authorization #10-0341-10. SBA's participation in this cosponsored activity is not an endorsement of the views, opinions, products or services of any cosponsor or other person or entity. All SBA programs and services are extended to the public on a nondiscriminatory basis. Reasonable arrangements for persons with disabilities will be made if requested at least two weeks in advance. Contact: Jayne Armstrong, 302-573-6294 x225, jayne.armstrong@sba.gov.